Evidences of Sorrow.

Evidences of the public as well as the sectarian sorrow were planinly ob able throughout the city yesterday. ris, and in the telegrams of sorrow that reached the chancery. The episodes of the funeral services, however arranged to avoid ostentation and pomp, however designed in the spirit of simplicity, will mark these public sentiments.

The sories of religious ceremonies began yesterday morning when the body of the Cardinal was placed in the chapel of his summer home, Green Acres, at Orienta Point, Mamaroneck, N. Y. All night long prayers had been said for the repose of the Cardinal's soul, and immediately after the body was placed.

RUSSIAN COMPOSER TO GIVE CONCERTS

Prokofieff, Sensation of London, Arrives in New York.

Serge Prokofieff, a young Russian planist and composer whose works already have created a sensation in London, has just arrived in New York to arrange for concerns of his music in has brought with him enough of his compositions for two complete grammes. It is understood that am Boyce Thompson, who visited Russia last year as a member of the United States commission, was instrumental in persuading the composer to come to this country. The concert probably will be given under the auspices of the Russian Symphony Society, or the Society of the Friends of Music.

Prokofieff has won great popularity in his own country. It was said his per-formance of his pianoforte suite, "Sarcasms," in Petrograd produced much ar-

Crowder's Statement.

To-day's etatement from Gen. Crowder gives the following explanation:
"We took the figures as furnished us by the actuarial and census experts, the best authorities in the country. They figured the total at about 13,200,000; deducting about 400,000 for men already enlisted and therefore not required to register there remained some 12,800,000. "This was the number that ought to have registered; we frankly announced it, and we were prepared to face the facts if it should turn out that the actual registration fell short of this, and that apparently this country contained a hun-dred thousand or more men who were too ignorant or too indifferent or too disloyal to record themselves. stead of that we find the nation has oversubscribed its own man power. It has literally 'gone over the top. In conclusion Gen. Crowder said: "If registration day means anything it means that this nation is unautmously in the war to win-and to win it com-
